Reverend Dominic J. Ngangah, C.M.
Saint Catherine Laboure Parish-260

Saint Louis, MO 63128-1293

Dear Father Ngangah,

Thank you for your work on the 2023 Annual Catholic Appeal. Over 33,500 households contributed more than $16.7 million to help build the Church. Please see the upcoming St. Louis Review for more details. Because the work of our parishes was so critical to our success, I have enclosed your final parish report and a preview of the Final Results Supplement for your early review.

This year's letter to parishes with their results is a little different than in past years. With so many priest reassignments and changes in our actual parish structure, many pastors are receiving a report for a parish that was conducted by a different pastor. For parishes that are merging or being subsumed, the report also carries special significance as a reminder of your parishioners' love and commitment to the mission of the Church. I am deeply aware of this reality, and I have a special gratitude to all who participated. Thank you for your leadership!

The parishioners and parish leadership at Saint Catherine Laboure Parish met and exceeded the financial goal for the parish. If your parish had not exceeded this goal, I would not have such good news to report today. Please extend my sincere gratitude to your parishioners for their faithful support.

I also want to offer my gratitude to Mary, the mother of our Church, for her maternal protection and ongoing intercession for the Appeal and the entire Church in the Archdiocese of St. Louis. Please join me in thanking Our Lady. Thank you, once again, for your faithful service. I will keep you and your parish in my prayers. May God continue to pour out His blessings upon you and your priestly ministry.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Mitchell T. Rozanski
Archbishop of St. Louis
