

Heavenly Father,
On this Legacy Sunday, we remember with gratitude the faithful souls who came before us, parents, grandparents,
religious and lay, who gave of themselves so we might know You.
We honor their sacrifices: long hours in prayer, humble offerings of love,
churches built by hand,
and the courage to carry their faith
through hardship and persecution.
Because of their devotion, we walk a path made firm by their witness.
Lord, may we be worthy of their legacy.
Inspire us to live generously, give sacrificially, and plant seeds of faith for those who come after us.
Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May their memory live in our hearts
and bear fruit in Your Church.

Amen.

FAITH ACROSS GENERATIONS

EASTERN MISSOURI

My dear child,

If I could leave you with one thing, it wouldn't be a house, or a name. It would be something quieter, something deeper. It would be the peace I found kneeling in a quiet church, the stillness of a sanctuary that held me in moments that I didn't have words for. It would be the comfort I felt walking through those same doors every Sunday, knowing we were loved. We built a life around that love...something we offer now to you and others because this love should span for more than one lifetime.
