Epiphany Home Blessing 2023

The coming of Jesus makes every Christian home a holy place, so on Epiphany we celebrate God's presence revealed to us in our homes and in our family life by blessing our homes.

To bless your home, gather as a family in front of your home. Say a blessing (below) and write in chalk above the door the numerals for the New Year combined with the first letters of the words in the Latin blessing, Christus mansionem benedicat, May Christ bless this dwelling." (Write: 20+ C+M+B+23)

Leader:

Peace be with this home and with all who enter.

All respond: Blessed be God forever.

Leader:

Today God comes to live with us in our home and in our family.

All respond: Today our home is a holy place.

Leader:

Bless this home, O Lord, and all who enter within these walls. Bless all who enter through these doorways. May our love for each other shine as brightly in our home as the Bethlehem star shone over the first home of the Infant Jesus.

All respond: Amen.

Walk through the home, sprinkling each room with water using a flower or evergreen branch. In each room say,

Leader: Bless this room and all who enter here.

all share in the promise

Picture a nativity scene in your mind's eye. The scene likely includes figures arriving on camels, some elaborately dressed, with jeweled boxes containing precious gifts. These magi arrived from distant lands to pay homage to the Christ Child. We know little about the magi, but we do know that these visitors were not Jews.

They represent people of all nations who will be drawn to the Lord. "Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance." The Good News of Jesus cannot be limited to one people; all share in the promise of God's mercy through our Lord Jesus Christ.

beyond grateful

A Big Thank You for your support of
St. Catherine Laboure in 2022!

We are a vibrant parish because of you.

Fr. Kevin, Fr. Charlie, Dn. Tim and the entire staff appreciate the kindness and generosity of your continued support through your participation in the Eucharist, donations of time and talent, monetary offerings to our offertory collection, including by mail and online.

If you are interested in signing up for online giving, please contact our parish office at 314-843-3245 x 300 and speak with Penny Weiss, or email her at pweiss@sclparish.org.

O come let us Adore Him...Christ the Lord.

The Adoration Chapel is open 6am until 10pm
Monday through Friday.

If you are interested in being a regular adorer (weekly, every other week, partner or a substitute), please contact Stacy Kilker—<stacykilker@gmail.com> or Dori Scherer—314-471-3076 or <dori.scherer@gmail.com>. We will try to work with your availability.

"This is the season where the Magi show us, based on their private study and openness to truth, that we can fall on our knees and adore that which we know to be God, long before knowing how moving His life really will be. God is here. This truth should and may move us, yet the weight of the truth itself, that truth alone, weighs us down to our knees in adoration, nonetheless. In that posture of adoration, we offer Him our heart more than ask Him to move it."

SEMI ANNUAL BLOOD DRIVE

"We All Bleed H^{PE}!"

Did you know that between our 2 Red Cross blood drives last year, we collected 131 units of blood? Your blood donations went a long way in easing the blood supply shortage. Our next blood drive will be held on January 16, 2023 in the school cafeteria from 1:30-6:30. Why not start the new year off right and resolve to donate at both blood drives this year? You can go online and schedule your time now at <https://www.redcrossblood.org>. When donors come to give blood, they'll be entered to win a trip for 2 to Super Bowl LVII in Arizona! Questions? Call John Capellupo at 314-602-6866 or Mary Lee Burlemann at 314-941-9290.

"Lessons in Chemistry" by Bonnie Garmus

Chemist Elizabeth Zott is not your average woman. In fact, Elizabeth Zott would be the first to point out that there is no such thing as an average woman. But it's the early 1960s and her all-male team at Hastings Research Institute takes a very unscientific view of equality. Except for one: Calvin Evans; the lonely, brilliant, Nobel-prize nominated grudge-holder who falls in love with—of all things—her mind. True chemistry results.

But like science, life is unpredictable. Which is why a few years later Elizabeth Zott finds herself not only a single mother, but the reluctant star of America's most beloved cooking show Supper at Six. Elizabeth's unusual approach to cooking ("combine one tablespoon acetic acid with a pinch of sodium chloride") proves revolutionary. But as her following grows, not everyone is happy. Because as it turns out, Elizabeth Zott isn't just teaching women to cook. She's daring them to change the status quo.

Laugh-out-loud funny, shrewdly observant, and studded with a dazzling cast of supporting characters, Lessons in Chemistry is as original and vibrant as its protagonist.

FAITH AND JUSTICE

A Parade of Holy People Practicing Faith and Justice

"No act is charitable if it is not just"
(St. Bruno)

What do Mary, St. Stephen Protomartyr, St. Thomas Becket, St. John the Evangelist, the Holy Innocents, the Magi, St. Basil the Great, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, St. John Neumann, and St. Andre Bessette all share? Special days during the Christmas season when the Church honors them for their lives of faith and justice. Justice can be defined as the action of giving others what they need. Note the faith-filled actions of these holy people who supported justice.

- ◇ Dec. 26–St. Stephen Protomartyr–Died for his faith in Jesus Christ and forgave His murderers
- ◇ Dec. 27–St. John the Evangelist–Shared the love of Jesus for all through His Gospels and took care of Mary after Jesus' death
- ◇ Dec. 28–The Holy Innocents–Martyred for Jesus and reminders of the injustice of the destruction of innocent lives to protect power
- ◇ Dec. 29–St. Thomas Becket–Martyred for standing up to powerful King Henry II to defend the Catholic Church in England
- ◇ Jan. 1–The Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God–Brought Jesus and our salvation into the world
- ◇ Jan. 2–St. Basil the Great–Defended the Trinity in his writings and cared for the poor
- ◇ Jan. 4–St. Elizabeth Ann Seton–Converted to the Catholic faith and began schools and hospitals to care for the uneducated and the sick
- ◇ Jan. 5–St. John Neumann–Ministered to immigrants, fought anti-Catholic nationalists, organized a system of parochial schools
- ◇ Jan. 6–St. Andre Bessette–Listened to the needs of thousands of people at his job as a doorkeeper and prayed to St. Joseph for them
- ◇ Jan. 8–The Magi–Honored the birth of Jesus and chose to protect Jesus from Herod

In 2023 here are some ways we can follow the example of these holy people.

- Accept and welcome family members who are rejected.
- Listen and calmly participate in conversations about race, immigration, poverty.
- Educate ourselves on actions to help the vulnerable by attending Just Faith programs like Faith and Racial Healing at SCL or Let's Talk at St. Justin Parish.
- Attend the Mass for Racial Unity on Thursday, Feb. 2, at SCL at 7:00 p.m.

Accept the outcomes of All Things New with spirit and love, recognizing the needs of our priests to minister to us.

How will I use my faith to practice justice in 2023?

ONLINE GIVING PLATFORM INSTRUCTIONS:

At the end of 2020 our Online Giving provider implemented a new platform. Everything rolled over from the previous site and no changes were required of you, but the site now looks and acts a little different. You can access the new Online Giving site directly by going to: <https://www.osvhub.com/sclparish/funds> or by accessing the site through St. Catherine Laboure's website, www.sclparish.org, then clicking on the Online Giving Box with the green medallion and cross picture in it. This will bring you to the main screen with the Online Giving Funds listed.

If you do not wish to create an account and want to just make a quick-give gift, you can click on the "Give Now" button underneath the name of the fund you wish to donate to. A new screen will appear in order to configure the gift. After you enter the gift amount, gift type and date, you will click on continue. IMPORTANT: The default gift type is "recurring", so if you only want a one-time gift, click on the drop down arrow next to the word recurring and select one-time. A new screen will appear requesting your personal and payment information. At the bottom of the screen, you can "Create an Account" or "Give Gift as a Guest".

If you are already an Online Giving User, you will click on "Sign In/Create an Account" in the purple bar on the top right hand side of the screen. This will take you to the login screen where you can enter your email address and password. UserID's are no longer used; they have been replaced with your email address. If you have forgotten your password, click on the link "Forgot Password" and enter your email address. Instructions will be sent to you to reset your password. Once you log into your account, your upcoming gifts and transaction history will appear. If you wish to change an upcoming gift, click on the three dots next to the dollar amount. You will have the option to "edit", "pause gift" or "cancel gift". Follow the prompts to complete any of these tasks. The system is user friendly. However, if you need additional help or instruction, please don't hesitate to email or call me for assistance at pweiss@sclparish.org or 314-843-3245, ext. 300. I will be happy to help.

Thank you for your commitment to St. Catherine Laboure and our Online Giving program!
